

CONTRIBUTION TO MULTIMEDIA PUBLICATION GENERAL AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made between The Hemispheric Institute of Performance and Politics (“the Institute”), and _____ (“Contributor”).
Contribution is defined as containing: _____

TERMS

- A. The Institute reserves the non-exclusive right to use and publish all or part of this contribution as Institute Media (including but not limited to our website, archive, compact disks, promotional materials, and publications relating to activities of the Institute).
- B. The Contributor has written or co-written one or more elements of the Work(s), and/or is the coproducer or sole producer (photo, video recording, audio recording) of the Work(s) .
- The Institute and Contributor agree as follows:
1. The Contributor guarantees to the Institute that the contribution is original on his or her part, except for such material from copyrighted or other sources for which the contributor has permission to use.
 2. All contributions of media (interview, video recording, text, audio recording, photos) submitted in connection with this Agreement by the Contributor shall remain the property of the Contributor.
 3. The Institute will use all contributions as educational material, accessible and viewable to the public for the duration of the existence of the Institute. In some cases, the materials will exist beyond the life of the Institute, through the NYU Libraries.
 4. The Contributor, while maintaining rights to his/her own materials, shall not have rights to new materials created with them by the Hemispheric Institute, such as a book, a video of the Hemispheric Institute, promotional materials, and so forth.
 5. The Institute will not sell the material contributed to the archive. All requests for copyright and/or the sale of contributions will be directed to the contributor.
 6. The Institute will clearly attribute credit to the Contributor when using/publishing the Work(s).
 7. The Contributor understands and accepts that in some cases inadvertently the original material (i.e. photos, VHS, Beta Cam, Hi 8) may be destroyed in the process of transferring and copying materials in digitization. The Institute does not assume responsibility for any damaged, lost or stolen original materials.
