Applications are not considered complete until the following items have been submitted:

- Completed and signed application form.
- A personal statement of 250 to 500 words addressing your motivation and interest in wanting to study in Chiapas and how the course will contribute to your research and professional goals.
- Current C.V.
- One letter of recommendation from a faculty member at your institution.
(NYU students need not submit).

Please save all materials under your own name and zip your completed application to: hemi.courses@nyu.edu.

Processing time for a completed application is typically two weeks. Preference is given to students from member institutions of the Hemispheric Institute. Admission decisions are based on research interests and training, personal statement, any necessary supplementary materials, and whether there is space remaining in the program. Program may fill without notice. If a program is already filled you may be placed on a waiting list.
