

CREATIVE ACTIVISM THURSDAYS

The revolution will be debated

Meet the revolutionaries who have changed or are changing the world, and those who study them. We will meet Thursdays for a series of lectures, workshops, and other events focusing on the potential for societal change, and what we can do to bring it about through creative tactics and strategies.

STEPHEN DUNCOMBE

OCT 11, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Stephen Duncombe is an Associate Professor at the Gallatin School and the Department of Media. He is presently co-founder and director of the new Center for Artistic Activism. Join us for an overview of (mainly) US activism: American Revolution, Labor Movement, Civil Rights, Black Power, Feminism, ACT-UP and Occupy, seen through the lens of creative activism.

PAOLO GERBAUDO

NOV 15, 2012 | 7pm | Dept. of Performance Studies*

Paolo Gerbaudo is a lecturer in Digital Culture and Society at King's College London and a researcher in new media and culture in contemporary global activism. His research encompasses social movements of recent times from Greece, to the Arab Spring, to OWS, and the Indignados.

CAMILA VALLEJO AND NOAM TITELMAN

OCT 15, 2012 | 1:30-4pm | CUNY Graduate Center

Camila Vallejo and Noam Titelman are leaders of the Chilean student movement (movimiento estudiantil chileno), a series of student led protests that have sought systematic reform of education, including an end to for-profit higher education. Creative Activism Thursdays and the Hemispheric Institute are co-sponsoring their visit.

LARRY BOGAD'S ECONOMUSIC

NOV 28, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Larry Bogad is an author, performer, and the founding Director of the Center for Artistic Activism/West Coast. ECONOMUSIC: Keeping Score is a live performance in which economic data from our everyday lives and ongoing global crisis are converted into absurd neoDadaist music.

ANDREW BOYD

OCT 18, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Andrew Boyd is an author, activist, and prankster. One of the guys responsible for Billionaires for Bush, he is also one of the founders of US Uncut, The Other 98%, and Agit-Pop Communications. His most recent book, Beautiful Trouble, is a toolbox that puts the accumulated wisdom of decades of creative protest into the hands of the next generation of change-makers.

JIM HUBBARD, UNITED IN ANGER

NOV 29, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Jim Hubbard is the head of ACT UP Oral History Project, a compilation of interviews from the surviving members of the AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power, New York, and the director of the recently released documentary, United in Anger.

BIRGITTA JÓNSDÓTTIR

NOV 1, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Ms. Jonsdottir will join us through online video chat for this event. Birgitta Jonsdottir was elected as to the Icelandic parliament in 2009 on behalf of the democratic reform party, The Movement. She has been an advocate for press freedom through Icelandic Modern Media Initiative—as well as an active volunteer for WikiLeaks.

JUDITH MALINA

DEC 6, 2012 | 7pm | Hemispheric Institute*

Judith Malina is a pacifist, anarchist, actor, director and the co-founder of The Living Theatre, the longest producing theatre company the United States. Her work and that of The Living Theatre has, since its inception in the 1950's, continually challenged the forms, content and style of theatre and its relationship with the audience, breaking down the separation of arts and politics.
